

14
Great News from Ireland :

Being an ACCOUNT of the Famous

Town of GALWAY

Opposing the IRISH, and

Declaring for Their Majesties :

To which is added,

A RELATION of the Surrender of the Town and Castle of

|                    |   |                      |
|--------------------|---|----------------------|
| Slegoe.     | } | Mount-Talbot, |
| James-Town, | } | Carricks,     |
| Roscommon,  | } | AND                  |
| Boyle,      | } | Atbleague.    |

TOGETHER,

With the Motions of the ROYAL ARMY; And of the Enemies Camp at Ballinasloe.

---

LICENS'D, July the 15th. 1691.

---

From the Royal Camp in Connaught, July the 6th. 1691.

THE Enemy are retired to Ballynasloe, 11 Miles from our Camp, at which Pass they are Intrenching themselves; designing, as 'tis said, to attend our Approach, and Fight us: We have been employed in Burying the Dead Bodies which the Enemy left behind, and in laying a Bridge of Boats over the River, to the left of the Town of Atblone, to hasten the passage of the rest of our Men over, others of our Men have been employed in repairing the Fortifications of the Town, which our Guns had ruined, and in mounting the Guns, which we took in the place, on spare Carriages. Deserters from the Enemy, tell us of the great Confusion that's in the Enemies Camp. — Collonel Lloyd is made Governour of Atblone, whose Regiment, and Lieutenant General Douglas's are in Garrison. There is come in an Express to the General, from Capt. Aghmoore, which assured his Excellency, That the Rebels have quitted Lanesborough, and that the Capt. with his Militia Troop, had had taken Possession of it. Last Night Thirty of our Horse and Dragoons, which were sent out to view the posture of the Enemy, fell into an Ambuscade, of three Regiments of the Enemy, in the Wood of Clonalty, within three Miles of Ballynasloe, where Ten or Twelve of them were Killed; and the rest, with great difficulty escaped. This Day Capt. Toby Molloy High-Sheriff of the County of Roscommon, came in hither, and assures us, That the Rebels have quitted James-Town, Carrick, Ashleague, Mount-Talbot, Roscommon, Boyle, Slegoe, the three latter of which lie in a direct Road from Athlone, from which place to Roscommon being 12 Miles, from thence to Boyle, 22 Miles, and from thence to Slegoe 18, the last of which Places they Burnt, Demolished the Fort, and sunk the Nine Guns they had there in the Sea. — A great Party of Horse and Dragoons are Marched this Night towards the Enemy; and to Morrow the whole Body of the Army will move towards them; so that if the Enemy stand it, we may very speedily here of a general Battle; they draw all the Forces possible to their Camp, which has been Reinforced by the Forces of the above mentioned Garrisons, lately quitted by them.

Deserters from Galway, give an Account, That after our taking of Athlone, Monsieur St. Ruth, the French General, ordered some Battalions from his Camp, to Reinforce the Garrison at Galway, but their Advance Parties coming to the Town, the Governour, or Inhabitants, ordered the Gates to be shut against them, and that they have there since Declared for King William, and Queen Mary, and are sending some Persons to our General, to desire his Protection.

Kinsale, July 2d. The James Galley, Captain Pickers Commande, came in hither Yesterday, and reports, That our Grand Fleet were well on Saturday last, 6 Leagues Westwards of the Lands-end of England, whence he was sent to enquire after the Smyrna Fleet, which we could then give him an Account of; and after the French Fleet; Ours wanting Intelligence whereby to steer after them. — 3d. This Day the Smyrna Fleet, consisting of near 80 Sail of Merchant Ships, very Richly laden, arrived safely in this Harbour; it came in Seven Weeks from Cales, under a Convoy of Fourteen Men of War, from 50 to 70 Guns each, Commanded by Admiral Aylmer, who in his way hither took a French Ship of 140 Tons, laden with Wine, Brandy, &c. which is likewise brought in hither.

Dublin, July 6th. This last Week, several Ships came in hither Laden with Ammunition, Artillery, and other Uensils of War, and several others, which brought the Earl of Portland's Regiment of Horse, both Men and Horses in very good Equipage and Condition; as also the Monmouth Yacht, wherein the Lord Cutts, and Isaac Peirara Esq; Commissary General of the Provisions of Bread came this Day: Ten Tinn Boats, and great Quantities of Powder, Ball of all sorts, &c. Went towards the Army under the Convoy of the Earl of Portland's Regiment of Horse.

ADVERTISEMENT.

 An Exact Description of the Roads of Flanders, (according to the last and best Survey) giving the True Distances of all the Cities, Towns, Castles, and Places of Strength, (each from the other) in the Ten Provinces. And the most passable Roads for the Confederate Army (Commanded by the King of England) to March to any Place. And the passable Ways, by which the Confederate Army may enter into the very Heart of France. With distinguishing Characters, shewing what Part of Flanders is possessed by the Spaniards; what by the Dutch; what by the Bishop of Liege; what by the French; and what by the Duke of Juliers. Very necessary for Accommodating all Gentlemen and others (during the War in Flanders) in Reading the English and Foreign Gazetts, and other Intelligences of the Movements and Actions of the Confederate and French Armies. Price Two Pence. Printed for R. Hayhurst in Little-Brittain.